Mother Language Day Celebration:

Literary Club and Dept. of English organised My Signature in Mother Language Campaign on 12th Dec. 22. Students and Faculty members signed in mother language i.e. Devganari and in Marathi. This is a very important activity which is helpful to preserve our culture and national integration. Dr. Ashwin Ranjanikar explained the details and importance of Mother Language.

Reading: Students are encouraged to read the text book in the class room to build the confidence and develop courage to read loudly in the class room. This is the routine practice for the students. Because of this students are aware about the difficult words this will develop their vocabulary and pronunciation quality. The results of this activity are very positive and fruitful. Now students without any hesitation read the text very fluently.

Seminar: As a seminar students are asked to present the poem which is prescribed in the syllabus. This activity proved a fruitful as they got aware about the poem presentation and also it is preparation for the examination.

PPT Lectures: Conducted PPT lectures on:

1. The Night of the Scorpion
2. O Captain, O Captain
3. Money Madness
4. The Leach Gatherer
