The National Workshop on: Beyond Marks: Implementing Continuous & Comprehensive Evaluation as per NEP 2020 (Evaluation Reforms) organised successfully by Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya Education Society's Shri Sant Savta Mali Gramin Mahavidyalaya, Phulambri in Collaboration with: IQAC, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar Maulana Azad College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar Deogiri College, Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar was held at Savta Mali College, Phulambri today i.e.15th Feb 2025.

The workshop explored the principles and practical application of Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE) as outlined in the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. Participants got an insight into moving beyond traditional marks-based assessment and developing effective strategies for holistic student evaluation. It provided the faculty members with a comprehensive understanding of the evaluation reforms introduced by the NEP 2020 deliberated upon by Dr.S.S.Patil, Director, HRDC, Dr. BAMU.

Sessions covered key aspects of CCE, including: Shifting from summative to formative assessment Designing and implementing a variety of assessment methods Integrating technology into evaluation processes Developing rubrics and other assessment tools Using evaluation data to improve teaching and learning.

Participants engaged in interactive discussions with Dr. Mazhar Ahmed Farooqui, Dr.S.S.Patil and Dr. Ganesh Agnihotri.

For the Valedictory session, Prof. Dr. Pardeep Jabde, Retd. Registrar of Dr. B.A.M.U. was present. He portrayed the importance of Evaluation and inspired the participants to use advanced technologies in Evaluation. 100 participants were present for the workshop. Prof.
